

Terms and conditions for Employers

- The Employer profile needs to be complete
- The Employer is expected to provide all the mandatory details for the Job they are posting- Job Description, Number of Vacancies, Salary offered (If their management permits to disclose), Nature of work (Part time/Full time)
- The employer can select the candidates based on the eligibility criteria required for the role and can continue with the selection process followed by their organization.
- The Employer is expected to update the status of the selection process in the placement portal.
- The Employer is expected to provide feedback regarding the performance of candidates no matter it is a good or bad remark as it will help us improve
- The Employer should provide the details of candidates, if offer letters are released to particular candidate